RULES AND GUIDELINES

- Please, always remember that this is a CHRISTIAN convention. Any inappropriate behavior is strictly prohibited and is cause for a participant to be sent home at their expense. ALSO, appropriate clothing befitting Christians is required at all times. Misbehaving participant will be sent home.
- On arrival, every small group will be assigned a Monitor and YOU MUST STAY WITH HIM / HER ALL THE TIME.
- Attendance and participation in all prayers, liturgies and other activities are compulsory, please be punctual.
- Meal times are to be strictly observed as Queens University will not serve meals outside of the scheduled time. You must clear your table before leaving the cafeteria (put your tray, plates, cups back to where they belong).
- Damages caused to the buildings, grounds, fixtures, and/or furnishings will be charged to the participant.
- Tampering with life safety equipment (fire alarms, fire sprinklers, emergency lights etc.) or elevators in the Residence Buildings is strictly prohibited. Participants caught tampering with life safety equipment or elevators may be removed from the Residence for the duration of the Convention. Any fees or fines incurred due to tampering will be charged to the participant.
- Costs for damages incurred to equipment and/or missing equipment will be charged to the participant.
- The University and the Convention organizers accept no responsibility for any loss, damage to, or theft of equipment used or provided by the group.
- Quiet hours are in effect from 11 pm to 7 am daily. Outside of these times courtesy hours are in effect. Out of consideration for other groups staying in Residence we ask that you respect the quiet hours. If noise is deemed to be excessive, you will be asked to reduce the noise level. If this request is not respected, the individual(s) may be asked to leave Residence immediately.
- Keep your room and the campus grounds clean; put all trash in garbage cans.
- Monitors are here to help you, so please cooperate with them.
- Be friendly with one another.

We, _____ and _____ have read the above rules and regulations
(Participant) (Parent, Guardian)

and agree to follow them. We understand that if the organizers send the participant home and if there are any damages, it will be at our expense.
